

Table of Content

Editorial	7
MANON VAN DE WATER Technology, Pop Culture, and The Classics, or: What and Why for Whom?	13
GEESCHE WARTEMANN Children as Experts. Contemporary Models and Reasons for Children's and Young People's Participation in Theatre	21
JACKIE EUNJU CHANG / YOUNG AI CHOI Perception of the Contemporary Child and Theatre for the Very Young	31
TOM MAGUIRE Beyond the Culture of Concern: the Context and Practice of TYA in Contemporary Northern Ireland	43
STEPHANI ETHERIDGE WOODSON Building Third Space in United States Theatre for Youth	59
LORENZO GARCIA Theatre for and with Children in North Texas: The Valuing of Community Memory in the Face of Power	71
MIRANDA GILES What We Have in Common Core: Performing Cultural Anxieties and Cultural Difference in Arizona State University's There Was and There Wasn't	81

PAULO MERISIO Breaking some Eggs: Reception Experiences in the Theatre for Children	91
ARACELIA GUERRERO Theatre in Rough Neighborhoods	103
MARINA PETKOVIĆ LIKER / IVA GRUIĆ Children's Reception of a High-Pitched Voice of Reduced Expressive Power in Theatre	117
BEN FLETCHER-WATSON The Impossible Audience? New Developments in Theatre for Unborn Children	133
HA YOUNG HWANG Here Somewhere Far: Translating Yellow Moon for Contemporary Korean Young Audiences	147
MARY MCAVOY Not Not Anonymous: Pussy Riot and Riot Grrrl as Performative Girl Resistance	159
CHRISTINE HATTON The Tough Beauty Project: Interrogating Girl to Girl Violence through Theatre and Drama	173
TERESA SIMONE Hear Me, See Me: Towards a Collaborative Theatre for Deaf and Blind Youth	191
Authors	203